

OUT NOW ON FOG CITY RECORDS

FOG CITY RECORDS announces the release of THE MYSTERYFUNK EP, the debut release from GARAGE A TROIS.

GARAGE A TROIS is the way-out "eclectonica" side project from the fearsome threesome that brought you our previous release (Galactic drummer STANTON MOORE'S debut album ALL KOOKED OUT!)

STANTON MOORE - drums
CHARLIE HUNTER - bass/guitar and talk box
SKERIK - saxophonics and keys

These club-ready but sample-free tracks take you back to the new school in all-live, dubbed-out style. As with the recording of the ALL KOOKED OUT record, there were no headphones, no overdubs and definitely no samplers. Every funky note was laid down by just three musicians in real time - a feat made possible not by elaborate planning but by the multi-instrumentalist skillz of each conspirator in this fearsome threesome.

In keeping with the "back to the new school" approach of this project, these future sounds are available only in LIMITED EDITION 12" VINYL ONLY. The album artwork is hand-letterpress printed, making each album cover extra groovy - and ensuring that no two are exactly alike. One look at the genuine article will explain all.

An instant collectors item.
